Ausstattungen

Beschreibung

A nicely presented Bruce Farr designed Beneteau 463 based on the Beneteau Oceanis 461. Three cabins, two heads with third head converted into hanging locker. The large cockpit is fully covered for sun/rain protection extending inside living, outside. Down below the interior is very nicely finished and light and airy. This would be a perfect vessel for cruising the Caribbean and beyond. Viewing by appointment at our Grenada Office

Accommodations

The layout offers up to 6 berths in 3 cabins. There is full standing headroom and good ventilation throughout. The forward cabin has a very nice queen V-berth with hanging locker, drawers and side seating with ensuite heads to starboard. The galley runs the full length of the saloon on the port side with fridge/freezer & cold box, two-burner hob & oven, twin stainless sinks with pressurized hot and cold water and plenty of storage lockers. The saloon table can easily seat 6 with full length and island settee to starboard. The aft facing chart table and seat and electrical panel are on the starboard side. Either side of the companion way steps are the two aft cabins each with ensuite heads. The port side head has been converted into hanging locker. The sellers have the door to the port head which could be reinstated.
