Beschreibung

Conceptualized using the most powerful design software on the market, this robust, seafaring sailboat adapts perfectly to various types of sailing. Internationally renowned designer, Philippe Briand has combined his talents with those of the Jeanneau design team for a prodigious blend of technical strength and exceptional performance. From any angle, her elegant lines and spacious, modular interior will surely catch your eye. For passagemaking, every part contributes to the pleasure of sailing the open waters in complete security. For added comfort and convenience, each version can be adapted for an owner's use or for charter. Whatever the season or sea conditions, the Sun Odyssey 44i can go the distance. You will find comfortable design features in the cockpit, at the helm and in each cabin. Go ahead, take to the sea with a carefree spirit!

Kea is a 4 cabin 2 heads version which is benefits from the latest Raymarine electronics kit with radar and AIS. She has had her standing and running rigging replaced, resent sails and and also has cabin heating. She is ready for new adventures.

Accommodation

The Sun Odyssey 44i provides four cabins and two toilet/shower rooms with Jack and Jill Doors to aft cabins, each with hot & cold water, toilet and port holding tank.

Each cabin has a double berth giving eight berths, plus the main saloon settee & table are convertible to give another double berth taking the total to 10 persons, although we would only recommend the use of the main saloon by children.

The galley includes a double sink, two top-entry fridges with ice-box, a twin-burner cooker with oven, and plenty of storage both behind the worktop & cooker and below the sinks.

The Sun Odyssey 44i provides twin heads each including a shower either side of the companionway. There are twin double berth forepeak cabins plus two rear double berth cabins.

There is a chart table to starboard with control panel, VHF radio and CD/radio player. The main saloon settee and table can convert into an additional large double berth although we only recommend this for use by children.

Blue upholstery in the main saloon and fabric mattress in the cabins
Teak wood finish
