Beschreibung

This impressive Centurion 49 was designed by Edward Dubois and hand built in fiberglass by the highly reputable Wauquiez yard in France. She was constructed for long-distance sailing and she is a true performance blue water cruiser superbly equipped with extensive upgrades (including new rig and engine rebuild all of which is documented) and she includes a huge inventory. The current owner purchased her in 2009 and she is now ready to take her next owners on their next adventure and is Transatlantic ready. (US Brokers please do not hesitate to contact us)
