Beschreibung:

The Athena 38 is one of Fountaine Pajot's most successful and seaworthy designs – and "Stream Spirits" is a fine example of this capable performance cruiser. With her sleek lines, well-balanced layout, and excellent sailing characteristics, she remains a favorite among long-distance sailors worldwide. After wonderful sailing seasons at sea, the current owners have decided to retire from sailing, offering this well-cared-for catamaran to new hands. "Stream Spirits" has been ashore for the past three years, professionally maintained and preserved in excellent condition. This catamaran strikes a rare balance between performance and comfort. With her efficient build, the Athena 38 offers rewarding sailing even in lighter winds, while still providing generous living space and a practical interior. Several thoughtful upgrades have been made over the years to enhance performance, safety, and comfort – reflecting the owners' passion for quality and detail. Whether you're dreaming of coastal cruising or bluewater voyages, "Stream Spirits" is a reliable companion. A timeless design, lovingly maintained – now ready for her next journey.
