Beschreibung

The Grand Banks 46 Classic is one of the most iconic trawler yachts ever built, known for her elegant lines, seaworthiness, and handcrafted teak interior. Retrofitted Zero Speed Fin Stabilizers - investment of over 150.000€. Designed for serious cruising as well as comfortable living aboard, she combines traditional charm with practical layouts and reliable performance. With her spacious three-cabin, two-head arrangement, large salon, and expansive flybridge, this yacht offers the perfect balance of offshore capability and home-like comfort. CLIVIA underwent a large technical refit in 2021.

The yacht currently has a winter berth in a heated hall and a summer berth in the harbor of Olpenitz - both of which can be taken over by the new owner.

Highlights:

Large technical refit in 2021
Zero Speed Fin Stabilizers retrofitted in 2021, SPS55 actuators with VF650 vector fins and hydraulic powerpack
Bosch Rexroth hydraulic pump installed, gangway hydraulics serviced, and SE170 bow thruster installed
New navigation equipment and chartplotters
Timeless Grand Banks design with handcrafted teak interior and classic trawler lines.
Spacious 3-cabin, 2-head layout: private master stateroom aft with island berth with en- suite facilities and forward guest stateroom with V-berth and port guest cabin.
Large salon with panoramic windows and lower helm station for all-weather cruising.
Fully equipped galley with ample storage and adjacent dinette.
Expansive flybridge with helm, seating, and dinghy storage — ideal for entertaining.
Wide teak side decks and secure handrails for safe movement on deck.
Long-range cruising capability with fuel capacity of 600 US gallons.
Twin Caterpillar 3208TA diesels — reliable, proven engines, 2.000h each.
Semi-displacement hull for efficient 9-knot cruising and higher speeds when needed.
Onboard generator and inverter system for self-sufficient extended voyages.
Besenzoni gangway / bathing ladder for easy water access.
Renowned Grand Banks build quality — solid fiberglass hull, premium joinery, and seaworthy design.
