Beschreibung

The Biga 292 is a beautifully crafted German sailing yacht, combining timeless classic lines with modern construction and technology. Designed by renowned naval architect Georg Nissen, she offers an elegant silhouette while delivering lively, responsive and sporty sailing performance. Her narrow hull, balanced rudder and refined sail plan make her particularly appealing to sailors who value both character and performance. The Biga 292 is not a mass-produced yacht, but a distinctive and individual boat for those seeking classic beauty, quality craftsmanship and engaging sailing.
