Beschreibung

What if you never had to choose between shoal water and open ocean again? Paktiya ends that argument. 1.4 m of draft to anchor where the crowd cannot follow - then 8 m of beam and a family home afloat: four cabins, eight berths, room for everyone. Mike Waller's 14.8 m hull, hand-laid Western Red Cedar core and 750 g tri-axial glass, professionally finished in Sydney. A 2023 in-mast furling rig you sail from the cockpit; solar, watermaker, 1,200 litres of water, brand-new galley refrigeration, fresh 2026 antifoul. Bluewater bones, shoal-draft freedom. Step aboard - you will understand.
